

Delaware Homeland Security Terrorism Preparedness Working Group

The Delaware Homeland Security Terrorism Preparedness Working Group (DHSTPWG) is made up of 12 response disciplines, which represent the primary emergency responder element of the Delaware Emergency Operations Plan (DEOP). The disciplines are made up of the people who respond directly to the scene of an incident or directly support prevention, response or recovery activities during an event. Each discipline representative has a seat on the Delaware Homeland Security Terrorist Preparedness Working Group (DHSTPWG) and the representatives are the lead members for each of the response disciplines. Lead members coordinate grant guidance within their respective disciplines and develop projects, which are incorporated into grant initiatives. The DHSTPWG reviews and prioritizes proposed projects from the disciplines to determine grant award recommendations. Once a final recommendation is developed, the Investments are presented to the Senior Advisory Council (SAC) for a final review before submission.
